

Pathways to water sensitive communities through planning

Seminar and workshop

AGENDA

Date: Thursday 29 October 2015

Venue: The Science Exchange, 55 Exchange Place Adelaide

Outcomes of seminar and workshop sessions :

1. Gain an understanding of the opportunities for integration of WSUD into planning policy
 2. Identify possible pathways to facilitate the mainstream adoption of WSUD
 3. Identify the supporting tools and resources for industry and local government required to underpin any new policy regime
-

9:30am Registration – tea/coffee on arrival

10:00am	Water sensitive urban design (WSUD) delivering on state priorities	Julia Grant, Executive Director, Water and Climate Change, DEWNR
---------	---	--

10:10am	The case for WSUD – delivering liveable, resilient communities	Mellissa Bradley, Program Manager, Water Sensitive SA
---------	---	---

10:20am	The planning reform and opportunities to integrate WSUD	Andrew Grear, Executive Director, Statutory Planning, DPTI
---------	--	--

10:40am	Policy frameworks for WSUD in five Australian cities	Linda Choi, Monash University (Law Faculty)
---------	---	---

11:00am	Plenary Session	Q&A
---------	------------------------	-----

11:30am Break

11: 45am	WSUD Planning Policy implementation and new directions for Blacktown	Mark Liebman, Blacktown City Council
----------	---	--------------------------------------

12:15am	Development support tools across a range of scales	Mellissa Bradley, Program Manager, Water Sensitive SA
---------	---	---

12:30pm	How do we develop water sensitive communities?	Small Groups
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What will a water sensitive city/community look like? ▪ How can WSUD contribute to this?

- What are impediments to achieving water sensitive communities at present?
- What will our urban landscape and environment be like if we don't adopt a water sensitive approach to design?

1:00pm	Lunch
1:45pm	Policy instruments and pathways for SA WSUD Policy	Baden Myers , Goyder Institute for Water Research, University of SA
2:00pm	Draft SA WSUD Planning Policy Module	Martin Allen, Principal Policy Officer, DEWNR
2:10pm	Workshop proposed policy instruments and WSUD planning policy module and identify other support and tools required by practitioners/development industry?	Small Groups
3:25pm	Summary
3:35pm	Next Steps
3:45pm	Close

Register Now

This is a free seminar/workshop

Enquiries to Kathryn Bothe, Events and Communications Partner, Water Sensitive SA

For further details contact Mellissa Bradley, Program Manager, Water Sensitive SA, 0431 828 980

Water Sensitive SA program partners

LOCAL GOVERNMENT RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT SCHEME

